Dear Ming-Chieh,

Congratulations! After careful consideration of your entire application, including academic accomplishments and letters of recommendation, we are pleased to inform you that the Materials Science & Engineering admissions committee has approved your admission to the M.S. in Materials Science (research) program for the Fall 2026 term.

Cost of Attendance

Please review the current list of expenditures to learn more about tuition rates and applicable fees.

Financial Awards

Based on your academic achievements and your potential for academic excellence, we would like to offer you a scholarship of $5,000 for each semester you are enrolled as a full-time student for the official duration of your program. In order to continue to receive this scholarship each semester, students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Health Insurance

Students are responsible for covering the cost of their health care insurance, which is mandatory. If you are covered by another plan and do not opt to join Carnegie Mellon University's plan, you must document this coverage. Please see the University Health Services website for more details.

Next Steps

To inform us of your decision, please notify the Admissions Office using the Reply to Admission form, found on your application status page, no later than April 15th. This will begin your enrollment process. Once we have received your acceptance we will forward registration and enrollment information to you.

We look forward to your joining our MSE community here at Carnegie Mellon University. We are confident that you will find this to be a vibrant environment to support your academic and professional development. If you have any questions at all about our program, please contact the Faculty Director, Dr. Robert Heard. We would be happy to help you make contact with some of our current graduate students so that they can discuss the merits of our program with you.

With Best Regards,

Elizabeth C. Dickey
